

William Shakespeare.

Shakespeare is famous for creating many plays and stories.

What are the titles of some of his most famous work?

Find three and write a short description of each one, including main characters and setting.